Empowering Real Connection. Creating Lasting Impact.™

Igniting transformative inclusion, supercharging collective joy, and energizing people to build cultures where everyone truly belongs and thrives.

Ordinary? Not in Layne's vocabulary!

Layne doesn't just hold a mic – they wield it like a wand.

Their style is animated, high-energy, and deeply human, where vulnerability meets showbiz and transformation comes with a side of laughter.

They don't deliver keynotes; they create experiences that pull audiences in, turn rooms upside down, and send people home a little more human.

Expect goosebumps, big laughs, and maybe even a spontaneous dance move.

Whether they're leading a gala, energizing a corporate conference, or sparking culture-shifting conversations, Layne's approach is always bold, authentic, and a little mischievous.

More than a speaker, they're a bridge-builder who sparks belonging and leaves audiences energized, connected, and ready for bold action.

Warning: side effects may include uncontrollable laughter, renewed courage, and sudden urges to change the world.

Signature Presentations

Feel like you're walking on eggshells? In too many workplaces, people still feel pressure to hide parts of who they are. Then there are those who want to say the right thing, but are afraid they'll get it wrong. When language feels like a minefield and labels feel like limits, connection breaks down. Misunderstandings grow, confidence drops, and authenticity feels risky instead of rewarding.

“From She to They” tackles this head-on. Layne shows organizations how to turn discomfort into curiosity, confusion into clarity, and difference into strength – so your people don’t just feel included, they feel excited to belong.

But this isn't just a talk about gender identity. It's an invitation to widen the lens – to see how every difference, from race to body size to background, deserves space to shine. Layne gives teams the tools and courage to communicate with empathy, embrace diversity with confidence, and build a culture where people feel respected, valued, and excited to show up as themselves.

Key takeaways:

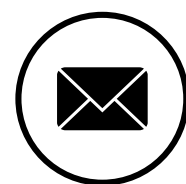

- Learn to use inclusive language with confidence and care
- Move from awareness to action through everyday allyship
- Understand the lived realities of non-binary and marginalized experiences
- Create a culture of respect, connection, and shared success – where everyone belongs

This session is designed for organizations, teams, and conferences ready to deepen inclusion, strengthen collaboration, and build cultures where everyone wins.
